I, _____, am a participant in "The American Orchestra: How An Instrumentation and Organization can Benefit Society" research project. I understand that the purpose of the project is to collect evidence and examples of how American Orchestral Institutions affect and change the communities they serve.

My participation in this project will be in the form of an interview with the Principal Investigator (PI). The interviews will be conducted over a video conferencing platform such as Zoom. All interviews will be recorded to preserve the data collected from participants. The interviews conducted will be used for scholarly and educational purposes by the Principal Investigator. These interviews may be preserved for future scholarly research through online access.

I understand that the following research project falls under the "Scholarly and Journalistic Activities" as defined by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services and is not monitored by the Vanderbilt Institutional Review Board.

I hereby grant permission to the Principal Investigator to record my participation in interviews. I agree that the PI may use my name, video, or photographic image or likeness, and statements without further approval on my part.
